Bill has taken this week off, so I won't see him until next Monday. His assistant is out on medical leave, but I'm going to try to get in touch with him as to any developments or directions from Thelma or the AG's office. Will let ya'll know ASAP.

Bill Renick and I finally had a chance to sit down face to face and talk about "next steps" on the training schools matter this afternoon. He has a meeting with Thelma Brittain on Monday and is going to check with her as to the AG's directions for items such as this. I told him that Judy Rhodes offered to attend a meeting with Mike Moore or Jim Hood if necessary to explain the importance of this.

I'm out next week, but Renick will let me know next steps when I get back on the 24th and will let y'all know, of course, if something needs to happen next week while I'm out.

Have a good weekend!
